Press Release

NAWBO Greater Detroit Announces its 2012 Annual Prestigious Top 10 Michigan Business Women Awards.

Patricia A. Shiu, U.S. Department of Labor's Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs is Keynote Speaker.

TROY, MI. – February 21, 2012: Winning NAWBOs respected top 10 Michigan Business Women of the Year Award is a great honor among peers. The National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) Greater Detroit celebrates its 18th year by honoring local women business owners. Women, who are pioneers in their field, those who struggled against the odds and even those who are just starting out, make up the elite group of women business owners who topped NAWBOs list of winners.

All the winners elicit a great sense of pride for their substantial impact and significant contributions to the world of business owners. NAWBO will celebrate these achievements at its Annual Awards luncheon on Thursday, March 29, 2012 at the San Marino Club, 1685 E. Big Beaver Rd., Troy, Michigan at 11 a.m.

NAWBO will also honor Judge Lucille Watts of Bethune Legal clinic with the Greater Good Award for the organization's leadership and activities and actions that have had a lasting impact on the quality of life and business in Detroit, Southeast Michigan and the state of Michigan.

Shining the light on the best in Michigan is easy when you have a group of women as outstanding as this year's winners listed below with the criteria they met to achieve their honor:

Up and Coming Award – honors Sonali Vijayavargiya, of Augment Ventures, an emerging and promising woman business owner who has owned her own business for five years or less. Breakthrough Award – commends Sheri Fricke, Real Estate One, a woman business owner who has overcome obstacles or removed obstructions for other women in the workplace.

For Release February 21, 2012
